TESTIMONIALS

"We're delighted to partner with HeadCheck as part of our ongoing commitment to player health and safety. Providing our medical and training staff with the best tools helps ensure that we can deliver the very best to our world class athletes."

Kevin McDonald, CFL Vice-President of Football Operations and Player Safety

"The entire CJHL Board feels introducing HeadCheck is a major step forward in moving towards better concussion management throughout the CJHL. We feel it's a very proactive and positive undertaking to keep CJHL Member Leagues and members ahead of the curve in player safety."

Brent Ladds, CJHL President

"HeadCheck's software allows users to perform concussion tests that are backed by evidence-based science. It's the most comprehensive easy-to-use concussion assessment tool available and an affordable solution for all schools and organizations."

Kyle Wellwood, retired NHL Player
